

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

TYPES OF CONTRIBUTIONS ACCEPTED

1. Originals. Original articles that contain empirical research, biographies, reviews, among others.
2. Reviews. Critical analysis of national or international scientific events, works published, films or documentaries, and websites related to Conscientiology themes.
3. Interviews. Interviews with people of recognized competence who contribute to some Conscientiology subdiscipline in a theoretical, practical and exemplary way.
4. Self-research. Reports on personal experiences, preferably narrating parapsychic phenomena, OBEs, retrocognitions and precognitions, among others.
5. Letters. Publishing of letters sent to the editor with suggestions and/or evaluations of Conscientia's texts, news about ongoing researches and interesting events.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

1. Identification Sheet. It should contain: title of the paper in Portuguese and English; the author's full name, qualifications, address and e-mail; the name of the institution to which the researcher is connected to.
2. Abstract. The abstract, limited to a maximum of 150 words, should contain a synopsis of the study, its objectives, methodology, results, discussion and conclusions.
3. Keyword. In each paper, a set of 3 to 6 keywords must be indicated in the article's original language.
4. Structure. The article should be organized in the following order:
 - a. Preliminary argument / introduction: presentation of the research context, purposes, organization of the topics and methodology (strategy, materials and methods).
 - b. Body of the text.
 - c. Conclusive arguments: the text's conclusion should relate the objective of the research undertaken. Results and discussions already presented throughout the text could also be included.
5. Citations. Quotations must be given in quotes and followed by the author's surname, date of publication and page(s). Example: "... (VIEIRA, 1994, p. 111). Long quotations, with more than 50 words, should be transcribed in a single paragraph, with no quotation marks, 4cm from the left margin, single space and reduced size. For further information on specifications, consult the Brazilian National Standards Organization (ABNT).
6. References. The references cited in the text should be arranged in alphabetical order and follow the criteria of the Encyclopedia of Conscientiology. Et al should only be used after the name of the main author when there are more than 3 (three), otherwise, all of them must be mentioned. As references, only authors quoted in the paper should be included. Other works may be cited as consulted literature.

7. Illustrations and Tables. These should be included when essential for the effective understanding of the text and the data. They must be readily intelligible, developed according to the rules of ABNT, present good quality, and provide caption and details of the source, if applicable. Both illustrations and tables must be numbered with consecutive Arabic numerals. The illustrations should be sent apart, in .jpg or .tif file, with resolution of at least 300 dpi.
8. Notation. The notation B.C.E. is used for dates referring to the period before the Common Era, and C.E. for dates of the Common Era.
